IS ANXIOUS

Saving Bread Will Help
The First NEWS OF GERMAN DRIVE

Local Boys Will Likely Take FIRST TWILIGHT GAME Part in Great Battle Now Raging

AMERICAN TROOPS STAND FIRM

Charleroi citizens were anxious on Monday when news came early in the forenoon that the German offensive had begun and that it was directed against the sectors along the battle front held by the Americans. Naturally some apprehension was felt over the outcome of the drive which the Germans were making, for it was realized that the boys from the States were about to receive their real baptism of shot and shell and battle and to be put to the severest test that a soldier is called upon to undergo.

It is true there had been a number of engagements of a minor character, although some of them involved large numbers of troops, in which the Americans had given indications of having the "real stuff," but the drive which began Monday morning and for which the Germans had been preparing for over a month, promised to be a major operation of more than expected the move and they knew it had to be of such a character as to give the Germans some assurance of success. Furthermore, it was expected the American troops would be exposed to this fierce onslaught, for the Germans had boasted they were going to give the Yankee some discipline.

The first dose of this discipline was given Monday and from reports now available it looks as if the Germans were unable to deliver the goods. They were willing to give the Americans a stiff chastisement, but the reception given to the Boches evidently surprised them. The Americans not only holding but at the same time taking a whole brigade of Germans, including a Brigade staff, was an unexpected turn of events to the Huns, who evidently believed their "highly trained and efficient troops" would prove more than a match for the Yanks. The "dope" was all wrong. The Yanks refused to be stampeded, and the Germans were worsted.

It is possible that a number of Charleroi boys are in the thick of this battle. If not already engaged, it is likely they will be before the offensive is over. Many are with the 110th Regiment, which has been in France for ten weeks and which is likely some place near the front. This is why we are so anxious for more definite details for at the present time America is in the war and is a vital factor in the present great battle.

CAMP SHERMAN PICTURES TODAY

Will Show How Uncle Sam Transforms Civilians Into Soldiers

OFFICER WILL EXPLAIN THEM

The big picture, "The Remaking of a Nation," made its initial appearance before a Charleroi audience this afternoon at the Majestic theatre and from the many warm commendations heard it filled every expectation. These pictures were taken at Camp Sherman, Ohio, where a large number of Charleroi boys trained for overseas duty and were filmed with the approval of the military authorities and the government.

The various details in a great cantonment like Camp Sherman are many and varied. Not only do the pictures show the manhood of training the men, but likewise the care with which the government looks after the welfare of the men who are placed in his charge. No feature in connection with the training camp is omitted and every one of them is of the most interesting character. The picture should be seen by every resident of Charleroi and particularly by those who have members of their families or relatives in the service. Camp Sherman is typical of what is going on in every camp in the United States and what is shown at Sherman will be found at every other cantonment. The first show began at one o'clock and the last one will take place at 10 o'clock. The proceeds will go to the soldiers' fund and Lieut. Vibbard will explain the various features as presented.

Make Many Arrests for Railroad Trespassing

Special Officer Jones of the Pennsylvania Railroad is making a special effort to break up the practice of trespassing on the tracks of the railroad company at Tenth street. Heretofore he has been very lenient with those who have persisted in making the tracks at this point a public highway and has admonished them to keep away.

However, his warnings have been unheeded and many of the people in that locality have continued to walk along and over the tracks hunting coal and wood for fuel purposes. The frequent running of trains through the local yards makes this practice very dangerous and the officer has decided upon more drastic methods in order to put an end to this annoyance. Accordingly last week information was made against eleven people who had been apprehended as trespassers all of whom were compelled to pay fine and costs amounting to something over $3 each.

On Monday seven more people were notified to appear before a local justice to answer the charge of trespassing and they will likely be given the same sentence as those who preceded them. The officer proposes to keep up the crusade until the practice is thoroughly broken up.

MURDERED MAN'S FUNERAL SUNDAY

The funeral of Andy Danko of Ellsworth who died on the morning of July 11 as the result of wounds in the back of his head inflicted by a hatchet was held Sunday last at his home at Ellsworth and the interment was at the Beallsville cemetery. County Detective George T. Marker took Mrs. Danko who with Paul Kollerson, the alleged paramour, is being held for the murder to the funeral. The service held in the yard at the Danko home was several times interrupted by the wife who threw herself on the casket and almost threatened to take the body from its resting place. She also made a demonstration at the cemetery.

Investigations now under way indicate that Mrs. Danko as well as Kollerson know something about the death of Danko. It is averred that Kollerson had said that he would either kill Mrs. Danko or her husband and that Mrs. Danko, who did not repulse the attention of Kollerson had discussed the matter of getting rid of her husband. Both are being held for further investigation.

Euchre will be held in St. Jeromes Lyceum Wednesday evening July 17 at 8:30. All are invited. Admission 25 cents.

ALL GARAGES AND AUTO SUPPLY DEALERS CLOSED MONDAY EVENING

ARE OPTIMISTIC OVER BENTLEYVILLE OUTLOOK

Bentleyville citizens profess to be optimistic over the outlook for their town and predict that its growth within the next few years will be something unusual. Drilling for gas continues to be active on the western limits of the borough and some of the more hopeful predict that eventually they will strike oil. Should such a contingency arise it will mean a boom to that locality which is already increasing in population at a rapid rate.

PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION

Merchants to Unite to Prevent Further Raids of Shoplifters

TO PUNISH ALL OFFENDERS

In order to protect themselves from the depredations of shoplifters who have heretofore gone unpunished in Charleroi because of the notoriety it would bring to a merchant if he prosecuted the culprit, the business men of the community propose to form a Merchants' Protective League.

It will be the purpose of this League to take care of the members of the Association and if any arrests are made for shoplifting to prosecute the offender. This would be done by an attorney hired by the Association and whose duty it would be to look after all such prosecutions to the finish.

Heretofore shoplifters who have been apprehended in Charleroi have been allowed to escape prosecution simply because the merchant or merchants who were the victims did not desire any notoriety and preferred to suffer the loss of goods rather than follow such cases through the courts. However, the activities of those who appear to make a living by stealing from merchants have become so pronounced that it was deemed advisable to take some concerted action in order to guard against any further losses from this source. Consequently the Merchants Protective Association is to be formed and all prosecutions for shoplifting will be made in its name against the offenders. There will be no let up in the crusade against this class of people and once any of them are apprehended they will be pushed to the full extent of the law.

A basket picnic will be held at the home of Mrs. George Mills on Thursday, July 18. All ladies having children from the Ben Avon home are requested to bring them. All Rebekahs are invited to attend. By order of the Noble Grand. 35-11

Every Dealer in County Responded to Request to Close Shop

DEALERS HOLD AUTO PARADE

So far as garage service after 6 o'clock in the evening is concerned, Washington county is 100 per cent efficient, according to the reports received by A. D. Spencer chairman of the county committee having the closing feature in charge.

Monday evening a dealers demonstration was held about a dozen automobiles taking part in the parade, which started from Charleroi, going down through Monessen, thence to Donora and on to Monongahela and New Eagle. In all of these towns the committee not only found the garages closed but likewise all those who dealt in auto supplies or in gasoline or oils. In Monessen a number of the garages and dealers had not been notified very early in the day of the movement, but when it was explained to them they at once fell into line and closed up. Not in any one instance did the committee find any garage or dealer in supplies attempting to evade the regulations as set forth by the National Automobile Dealers' Association but on the contrary all of them expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of the movement, and readily consented to close in the evenings as well as on Sundays and holidays.

There were a few dealers, it is understood who kept open in Rayette and Westmoreland counties but this was not due to any disposition to disobey the regulations, but rather because the committees in these counties had not given due notice to all dealers. It is expected that with notification which will be general today all garages and supply dealers in the two counties will respond to the appeal made by the national association.

The unanimity of action on the part of dealers in this section of Washington county was very gratifying to every member of the local committee and shows that garage owners and all supply dealers are ready and willing to co-operate with the government in conserving man power that more experts may be available for work on essentials for the conduct of the war.

THE GERMAN OFFENSIVE

It is to be expected that the German offensive will gain ground in its initial drive. Its master military minds know where the blow will strike and consequently have the advantage of their opponents, who cannot tell of the strength of the offensive until after it has developed. However, the present German drive is going to be stopped before it reaches Paris or the channel ports. The allied defense will be stronger than in the earlier months of the year and the Huns will have to be satisfied with meagre gains purchased at enormous losses.

The drive does not come as a surprise—the surprise is, that it has been deferred so long. It was expected a couple of weeks ago, but for some reason the Germans did not make a move. Now that it is on it must develop rapidly and it is believed that Foch is ready for the blow.
His lines will bend of course but they will not break. There is enough resiliency in them to allow for a falling back and then a coming forward that is going to take the "pep" out of the Hun. He must win the war this summer or practically acknowledge himself beaten. He may not do so and he may take a long time to retire to the boundaries of his own country, but he is going to do both eventually.
It will not likely be this year but it looks like a sure thing in 1919.

A NEW BATTLE LINE

The battle now raging in Albania, in which the allied forces are making considerable headway against the Austrian forces is apt to develop into a major offensive of some magnitude.
Moreover, it is likely to be important in that it will give the Bulgars as well as the Austrians plenty to keep them busy. Evidently the allied armies consider themselves sufficiently strong to undertake this campaign, else it would never have been started. That it will have a tremendous effect on the Austrians and the Bulgars, who will be compelled to defend their own borderlands, goes without saying and any support they have heretofore given to Germany on the western battleground will have to be withdrawn.
It is possible this campaign will be pushed with more than usual vigor, in that it will permit the allied forces to attack Austria from a new quarter, causing them to withdraw troops from the Italian front to take care of this new danger. If this phase can be accomplished it will mean demorlization for the Austrians, who are already tired of the war, and who would welcome peace if they could in any way reach this desirable end. This new campaign is apt to have its effect in crushing the Austrian power, for Germany cannot help her; the Tuo-tons, after one more drive, will have to take care of themselves as best they can. The war has a more hopeful outlook in the Balkan peninsula.

THE NEXT LIBERTY LOAN

Preparations for the next Liberty Loan are already under way. The new issue will not be offered until some time in the fall, but all the preliminary work is now being arranged for and the campaign for a greater sum than ever before is being outlined. Before these bonds are issued the American soldiers in France will have undergone a fierce baptism of blood and fire. Thousands of our men will be in their place on the battle line, and the casualty list will show greater length from day to day.

The government has use for all the money it will ask the people to subscribe or, in order to provide the various necessities that go toward equipping a soldier. By the time the new loan is ready to be offered to the people, they should have their former subscriptions well out of the way and be ready to assume any new burden the government may impose.
This we will be able to do by sacrificing and saving, two things we will be compelled to do if we wish to aid in the prosecution of this war.

IS IT A NEW ERA

The appearance of the concrete yacht at Lock Four on Monday has set a good many of the old-time rivermen to thinking and wondering if the coming craft for navigable waters is to be made of this material.

When these "ancient mariners" were young only wood was used in the construction of boats and barges as well as steamers. Now they have seen the introduction of steel in the making of boats of all classes, and it will not surprise them one whit if there should be an era of concrete boats.
Vessels of great size have been constructed of concrete, some of them ocean-going boats, which have given splendid satisfaction. So it is, the Monongahela may see large boats made for the carrying of coal and coke from mine to mill and as it is a much quicker and much cheaper process, it may appeal to some of the coal companies to give it a thorough trial. It is not safe to predict these days that "things can't be done," for the heretofore impossible is being accomplished almost every day.

THE POTATO BLIGHT

Reports from many districts indicate that the potato crop will be a failure, owing to the activity of a pest which has been designated as the potato leaf hopper. Many small patches of potatoes have been practically ruined by the ravages of this small insect, which sucks the life out of the leaf, causing it to wither and die, which prevents the tubers to attain to their proper growth. This trouble will cause quite a loss locally and no doubt other parts of the country will suffer the same way. It is possibly too late to do anything with the pest, as it already has accomplished about the worst it can do. The consequence will be a great reduction in the estimated crop, at least in this part of Pennsylvania, which may have a tendency to keep up prices. This is an unfortunate condition of affairs, but we should profit by experience, and next year adopt means whereby this scourge would be eradicated.

THE HUNTER HUNTED

Advices from the British admiralty announce that the U-boat, instead of being the hunter, is now the hunted.
With mine fields in the North Sea and depth bombs in every sub-chaser the life of the U-boat and its crew is now one of misery. The destroyers are looking for their prey with renewed energy and are being rewarded by being able to sink many of these pirates every week. It is possible of course for an occasional U-boat to sink a vessel, but their operations are now so restricted that they are making but little headway in their privatical undertakings. The allied fleets are doing a great work in keeping these Hun boats within reasonable bounds and it is safe to assume that when other "chasers" are placed in commission it will be difficult to find a U-boat any place in the Atlantic ocean. In the meantime the movement of troops to France continues at high speed.

States He Had One Lucky Day

Tanlac Helped Well Known Dairyman After Everything Else Failed Him

Almost everybody in Erie, Pa., knows G. W. Gundaker of 551 East Fifth street. George as he is fondly called by those who have admired him for his honesty and integrity for a good many years, has been a sufferer from stomach trouble and indigestion.
"I had a terrible case of stomach trouble and indigestion," he explained "and although I had doctored several years I could not get any relief.

"I would just bloat up like a mule and get cramps after eating. Yes sir, I would feel all out of shape. The only relief I could get was by taking a little soda and that relief was only for an hour or so at a time.

"It was a lucky day for me when I got this Tanlac and I certainly do thank the fellow who recommended it to me. Tanlac is the only medicine that really ever helped me and I had tried everything. Yes sir, everything I am now like a new man and I advise any one who has stomach trouble or indigestion to use this medicine. It surely will cure them. My phone number is Mutual 1707-X and I would not mind answering any other questions about my relief."

Tanlac is now sold here by Pipers Pharmacy.

With a heavy offensive directed against the American sector by the Germans, we must be prepared to receive greater casualty lists. "And moreover, we may expect to find a number of local boys who will be with units holding back the horde of Huns which are attempting to break through to Paris.

Burns, Cuts, Bruises

San Cura Ointment Relieves Pain, Draws Out Poison and Heals Promptly

There is no better remedy for burns, cuts and bruises than the antiseptic and healing ointment called San Cura.

Every person ought to have a jar on hand: it is the first and best aid to the injured in case of accident, and is the ideal remedy for so many other distressing and painful ailments besides.

For example, it is guaranteed by Henning's Drug Store and Piper Bros. Druggists, to relieve itching, bleeding and protruding piles, eczema, nettle urticaria, salt rheum, boils, carbuncles and pimples or money back.

In case of old running sores, no matter how long standing, a few poultices of San Cura Ointment will draw out the poison, and leave them in such a thoroughly aseptic condition that they will heal promptly.

We advise every reader to get a jar of San Cura Ointment today, and keep it ready for any accident or emergency that may happen. 30 cents, 60 cents and $1.20 at Henning's Drug Store and Piper Bros., Druggists on the money-back plan.

SOAP FOR THE SCALP

San Cura Soap is delightful for shampooing, because it is full of antiseptic properties that banish the germs of dandruff and other impurities from the scalp. It removes pimples and blackheads, too. 25 cents a cake at Henning's Drug Store and Piper's Drug Store.

If your druggist doesn't keep it send to the Thompson Medical Co., Titusville, Pa. adv

VEGETABLES PLENTY; EAT ALL YOU WANT

With the great variety of vegetables we have on hand this summer no one should fail to eat them. Using them will help us to go slow on wheat, sugar and beef. The United States Food Administration, as always, asks your cooperation.

String Beans.

Remove strings and snap or cut in one-inch pieces; wash and cook in boiling water only until tender, adding salt last half-hour cooking. Drain, season with butter or butter substitute and salt.

Boiled Beet Greens

Wash thoroughly and scrape roots, cutting off ends. Drain and cook one hour or until tender in a small quantity boiling salted water. Season with butter or butter substitute, salt and pepper. Serve with vinegar.

Victory Cabbage

Slice red cabbage and soak in cold water. Put one quart of the sliced cabbage in stewpan with two tablespoons butter or butter substitute, one-half teaspoon salt, one tablespoon finely chopped onion, few gratings of nutmeg and few grains cayenne, cook only until cabbage is tender. Add two tablespoons vinegar and one-half tablespoon sugar and cook five minutes.

Carrots and Peas.

Wash, scrape and cut young carrots in small cubes or fancy shapes; cook until soft in boiling salted water or stock. Add an equal quantity of green peas that have been cooked in such a small amount of water that it need not be drained off before serving. Season with butter, salt and pepper.

Cauliflower a la Parmesan

Place a whole cooked cauliflower on a dish for serving. Sprinkle with grated cheese and pour one cup thin white sauce around cauliflower.

THE FOLLY IN BUYING BLINDFOLDED

How many men and women in this community do their shopping blindfolded? Funny when you think of it that thinking men and women will play "Blind Man's Buff" with their money. You don't have to shop blindfolded unless you want to. The Out-of-Town Houses started the Big Game of "Blind Man's Buff." But, it's a dangerous game for us to play in our town. It isn't a fair game. It isn't fair to ourselves. It isn't fair to our community. It isn't fair to our home merchant. He is helping us, co-operating with us, working with us to upbuild and improve all our home institutions. Then, let us play fair with ourselves and with him. Let us give the home merchant the first chance. That is all he asks.
